

The political declaration
About participating in Iraqi elections in Oct. 2008

Our patient people were exposed to huge disasters and violations with the destruction of infrastructure since the falling of the former regime. They sacrificed in order to wait for the political changes, hoping the other political entities to bandage their wounds and to put an end for the sufferings.

The sequence of authorities couldn't solve the people sufferings in spite of their different strategic plans and policy. We don't like to mention the conflicts and fiascos because they are obvious nowadays through newspapers, internet, symposiums and satellite channels and became the speech of even the simple people.

The current situations are not durable and require a national project attempting to reconcile among the sects of our people and fulfill the practical needs for the required political changes.

It is either to go to a closed tunnel or to dash towards the desirable tomorrow.

Our political entity decided to take part in the Iraqi national elections to choose the right way, showing the transparency, preliminaries and targets of road plan. Our entity announces its rejection to the following situations:

- 1- The sectaries and allocating.
- 2- The armed militias and controlling with weapon force.
- 3- Forming the state institutions, armed forces and security systems on base of sectaries, religious and partisan loyalty.
- 4- The overlapping of neighboring countries in our national affairs.
- 5- The occupation stays without scheduling its withdrawal.
- 6- Plundering the country wealth and depriving the people from their boons.
- 7- Declining the services and neglecting the Iraqi people interests.

Our entity undertakes its commitment to realize the following goals and principles, attempting to do its best to be achieved:

- 1- Iraqi unity, land and people to root the national unit.
- 2- Building the law state and real cultural institutions.
- 3- Accrediting the standards of adequacy and integrity in selecting the state leaders and institutions.
- 4- Disinfecting the state systems from loyalties except loyalty to country and people.
- 5- Prevailing the transparency values and anti-corruption according to the national and international conventions.
- 6- The real national conciliation and civil dialogue.
- 7- Fighting poverty, unemployment and setting programs and plans to renovate, employing and availing work opportunities for all.
- 8- Empowering the woman and securing her freedom and giving her legitimate rights.
- 9- Justice, equality, supporting freedom, human rights and preserving people's dignity.
- 10- Building free respective and cooperative relationships equally with neighboring countries and different world countries.

- 11- Activating and establishing the civil society as a partner with the government as a base in the social and political process.
- 12- The return of Iraqi refugees, equitying, substituting them and securing their stability.
- 13- Caring of adequacies, scientists, excellent and thinkers with developing education and supporting the students.
- 14- Realizing the constant programs of Iraqi civil society and accessing with regional and international development.
- 15- Preserving the environment, supporting the development and removing the wars remains.
- 16- Preserving the resources, national wealth and developing them to serve Iraqi people.
- 17- Caring of agriculture and mechanism to support the farming sector and farmers to develop their income.
- 18- Taking care of laboring and vocational sector to achieve prosperity to the workers.
- 19- Developing the youth and giving them a chance to build the future of Iraq.
- 20- Building the new and Iraqi human according to the values and original bases.
- 21- Preserving the complete rights of all minorities.

Dear our perseverant people get ready to run for the next elections. It is the only cultural civil means to make a change which is a popular demand. It is the chance to embody your desire, don't miss it. Be careful of those who spoiled your thoughts. Practice your educated and national role to enlighten the people to take a part in the elections fairly and transparently. Support your real candidates and the primes of civil society.

You are qualified to do that. It is your decision and responsibility to serve Iraq.

We are sure that our political participation as a national, independent, Iraqi and democratic entity to run for elections whether they are governorates councils or national assembly, is to realize the people, independent politicians and the primes of civil society their hopes . Our entity is your location and programs to implement the national scheme to be decision makers.
